

Pitt County Historical Society “Show ‘n’ Tell”

Guidelines for Contributors

Pitt County Historical Society welcomes any and all interested parties to submit their oddities, treasures, collectibles, and what-have-you for investigation and discussion during its annual “Show ‘n’ Tell” session at the Red Banks Primitive Baptist Church. A panel of antiques experts and enthusiasts will offer insight into the provenance, usage, or collectability of the items. Attendance is open to all at no charge; submission of items is also free. (Please note that this event is neither a sale nor a formal appraisal although possible value may be discussed.) This year’s event is scheduled for February 11, 2018, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the Winterville Depot, Winterville, NC.

Because of the popularity of the event in recent years, the following guidelines have been adopted by the Board of the Society. They respectfully request that contributors of items for discussion, and also anyone attending the event, follow these guidelines.

- I. Submission of articles to be reviewed should be by 2:30 p.m. prior to the 3:00 p.m. event. One of the panel members will be there at that time to assign a number in the order of submission, and items will be discussed by the panel in that order.
- II. The number of items submitted per person shall be limited to two (2). No items can be accepted for showing after the event has started.
